Mailed To The Finest People In The World

Peace has been defined as freedom from disturbance, a state of being calm and quiet.

All over the world, down through the ages, man has claimed to put forth every effort to live peaceably with all men.

Since the days of Christ, the ideal of most leaders and writers has been peace but more often in theory than reality.

The more I read and hear about the ways man has tried to obtain peace, the more I realize that they are seeking the wrong kind of peace. The Lord said, "my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you." In other words, His peace is entirely different compared to man's. The next sentence in that same verse He said, "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." Greed and fear are two weapons that Satan uses as detours to keep us from the real peace Christ has promised us.

Greed, whether we admit it or not has crept into our lives from many angles. Keeping up with the Joneses, social climbing and status symbols are some of the devil's tools. This doesn't just pertain to individuals, but extends into every phase of living. Organizations, businesses, governments, churches, etc. are motivated constantly by greed which causes "hearts to be troubled".

Fear is another cloud held over our lives. The fear of war and attack has caused billions of our dollars to go into defense programs. Wouldn't it be great to invest this money to promote the truth that the "fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom" (Prov. 15:33) instead of trying to protect us from the fear of man? I guess it wouldn't work though, with that kind of money, greed would surely stick up its ugly head.

Is there a way to get out of this man-made rat race? Can we find real everlasting peace? I must tell you there is no way out that man can provide for us. The League of Nations, the modern tower of Babel—the United Nations, the Peace Corps, the Paris Conferences, all have proven unsuccessful. Papers have been signed, kind words expressed but still hearts are troubled and fear abounds.

Whether man knows it or not the peace he seeks is what the Prince of Peace provides freely to everyone. I know because I have that peace. I have seen this peace flood over many who have come forward in my Crusades for Christ.

How can you have this peace? The Lord has instructed us to be as little children or to exercise a child-like faith to receive Him as our personal Savior.

"Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted; and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven" Matthew 18:3.

I know that when I wrote those last words that you have no doubt read something similar to them before. I want to give you a personal illustration of what I mean by child-like faith. Not too long ago, I was walking in a busy down-town section in one of the cities where we were having a Crusade. I was engrossed in conversation and wasn't paying much attention as to where I was walking. I had stepped off the curb without looking at the lights or the traffic. Suddenly, one of my friends yelled frantically, "Leroy, look out for that truck!" Without hesitating, I jumped back to the curb as a big tractor-trailer rolled by me with not much room to spare. When I heard my friend's voice, I knew he meant business and heeded his warning. I didn't have time to think it over, I just acted and my life was spared. That happened to me another time too, when my very existence physically and spiritually was at stake. I heard the voice of God saying, "repent now Leroy, give your life to Me!" Without hesitation I obeyed because I knew God meant what He said.

Neighbor, heed the warnings and invitation of this message. Turn your life over to God. Accept Christ as your Savior and you too will experience this peace in your life that the world cannot give, neither can it take away.

Act now, think later!

Father, may those who read these words that do not experience this peace in their hearts, grasp this opportunity to become your child completely without reservation. Save their souls and keep a hedge of protection about their lives throughout eternity. In Jesus' Name. Amen

(Dear Reader, if you have made your decision for Christ since reading this message, please write to me, I would enjoy reading & sharing your experience. Then too, if there are any questions you would like to ask me, feel free to write and I will do my best to answer them to your satisfaction. I'll be looking for your letter.

Your evangelist,

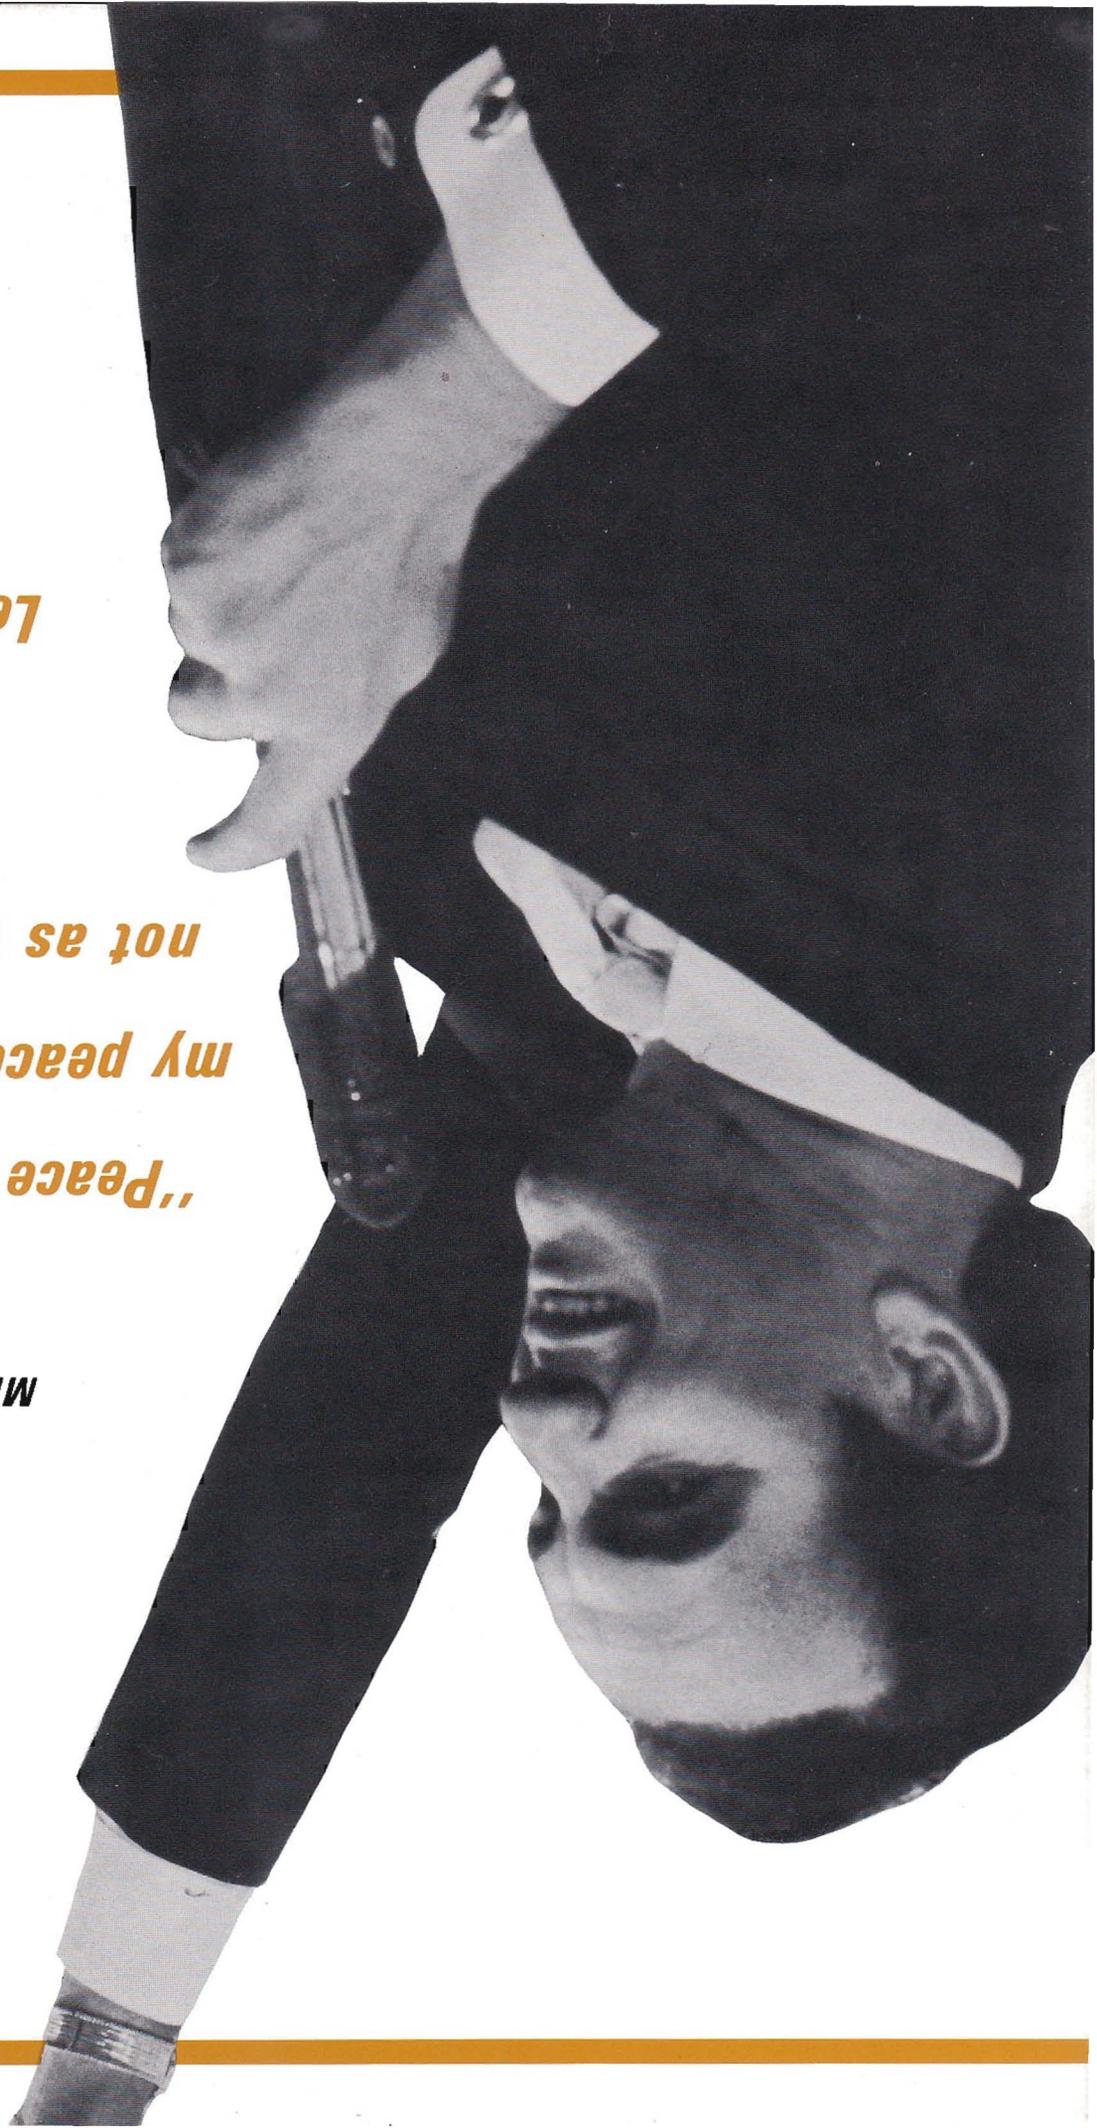

Leroy Jenkins

"THANKS" FROM 2 GRATEFUL SISTERS

A GRANDMOTHER

Happened

at the '69 Camp

Editor's note: I had the opportunity to be on hand for the opening days of the great campmeeting in Delaware this year. As I looked around the great congregation, I saw many familiar faces that I had seen in other Crusades about the country. There were however, some that were missing, so for those of you who couldn't attend, I would like to share a few of the blessings and experiences that took place under the great canvas cathedral right from the very first song. JS.

Saturday night, 7:30 P.M., July 26th, this was the beginning of another great Campmeeting. Remembering the wonderful results of the '68 Crusade, caused me to ponder the thought, "will this one be a meeting with greater impact than the one in '68?" My question was answered with the positive presence of God's Holy Spirit as I came underneath the great canvas cathedral. I looked over the great throng of people and experienced the electrifying presence of great expectancy.

Bob Daniels, one of the Lord's gifted servants brought the audience to their feet and their hearts before the Throne of Grace as the opening prayer

Jenkins called her out of the audience, told her of her condition and then said, "after prayer, you will walk away from here healed by God's power." Charlsie Miller, after prayer, felt as though crackers were crumbling in her chest. She took a deep breath and knew from that moment on she was healed. She testified that night, three years later, that God had done a marvelous miracle in her life through His servant.

Ministering to people individually as he does, Rev. Jenkins came upon another familiar face in the audience. Richard Sharp, a Methodist, was in attendance at our Crusade in Muncie, May 1968. At that time he was very despondent because information given to him by his doctors hung heavy on his heart. He had osteomyelitis, cancer of the bone, amputation of his foot was being scheduled in order to keep the disease from spreading. Upon returning from the Mayo Clinic he learned of Rev. Jenkins' Crusade. He attended the first meeting on crutches. God led Rev. Jenkins to him and he prayed the prayer of faith. Immediately he walked—he ran and praised God. He was healed. A little over a year later, he walked—he ran and praised God, he was still healed! You will find Richard Sharp wherever he is, testifying to the strength in our midst. With Barbra Brown at the organ console and Bob Daniels leading the congregation in the old hymns of the church, I knew that Satan had to take a back seat in this Crusade.

During the beginning of that first service, I had stepped back of the platform to be on hand to greet Rev. Jenkins as I hadn't seen him for a few weeks. I noticed standing behind the platform, a young and beautiful teen-ager, holding the hand of a dark-eyed, dark-haired little girl who turned out to be her sister. I asked if I could help her and she said, "I must see Brother Jenkins and tell him that all he told me last year has come true!" Within minutes, Rev. Jenkins arrived, ready to minister to the people. After a few greetings, his attention fell upon the teen-ager and her sister. He grinned and said, "well, it happened didn't it?"

Last year, at the Camp meeting the Lord had revealed to Rev. Jenkins that the mother of these two children would be with them in the very near future. They had not seen their mother for almost three years and had not been in touch with her for over a year at that time. To shorten this story, I will hasten to tell you that the mother returned home last Christmas! Praise the Lord! In connection with this, when the grandmother heard what Rev. Jenkins had told the girls she was infuriated. She knew the circumstances of her daughter who was out of the country and it was impossible for her to return to the states. However, with God, all things are possible! During the meeting that night, the grandmother shook Brother Jenkins' hand and told him, "you're not a fake like I said, you're for real!"

As I looked around the congregation for familiar faces, I saw one, just beaming. In Cincinnati, July 1966, Charlsie Miller did not have this expression on her countenance then. She had lung cancer with one lung already removed. Brother

Judge Wilbur Shull of the Columbus Municipal Court was on hand to welcome his favorite evangelist back to the state of Ohio. From the very beginning of the Crusade, Judge Shull has been taxiing Sisters from the Roman Catholic Church to the meetings. Some of these dear ladies were ministered to by Rev. Jenkins. Their presence reminded us of the wonderful blessings we received when many nuns and priests gathered under our Crusade tent last year to worship with us.

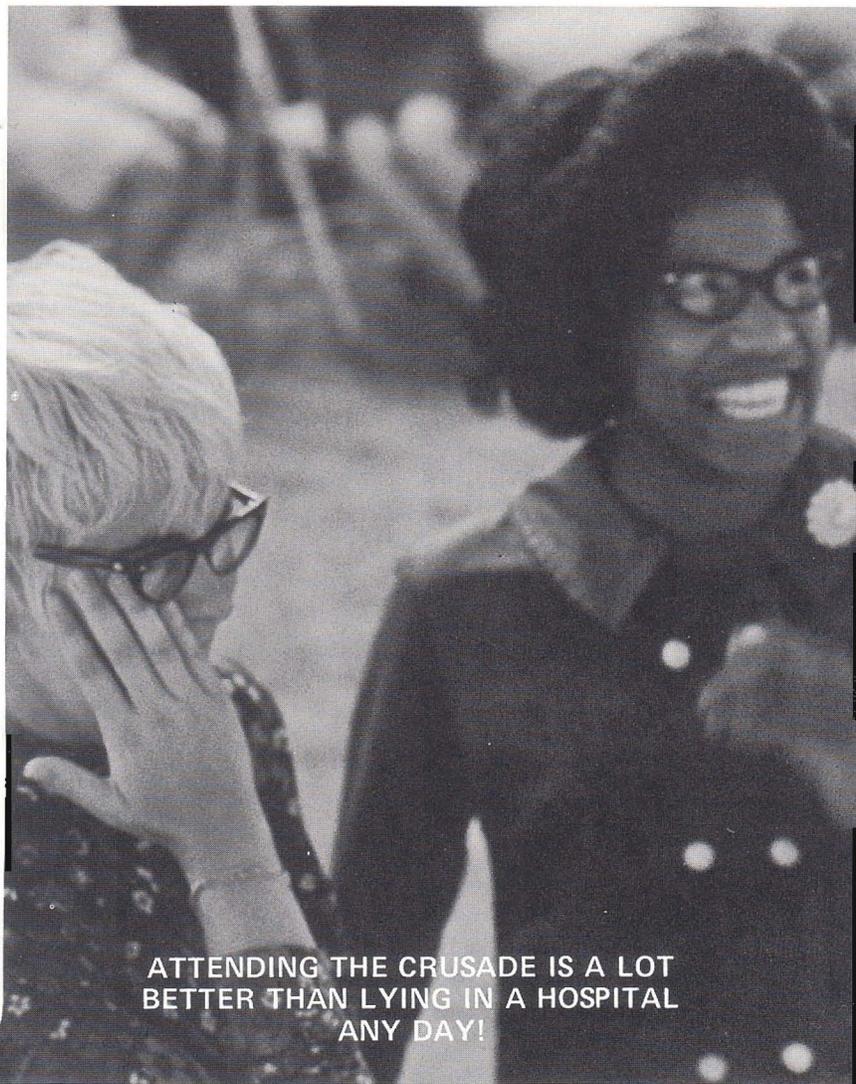

One young lady in the meeting decided to check into the Crusade instead of the hospital. Her decision saved her a hospital bill and provided that spiritual peace within. Praise the Lord!

At the close of one of the first services, I was approached by a mom and dad, Mr. & Mrs. Johnson, whom I had met the first of the year in Long Beach, California. Their son Duane, age 16, had made his decision for Christ during that Crusade. His mother told how Duane was always testifying to others about the power of God and how God had changed his life. Duane lost his life in a traffic accident less than four months after he had made his decision for Christ. I faced grateful parents who will always be thankful for the ministry of Leroy Jenkins that caused their son to turn to God before it was too late. A life was lost but a soul was saved eternally. Mrs. Johnson testified too that she experienced a miracle of healing during the Long Beach meeting.

This report could continue on in great length but there is just so much room in the magazine. I trust that what I have shared with you has been a source of blessing. I would like to remind you that this was just the beginning of the campmeeting. Check the Crusade schedule now and make your plans to be in attendance at your earliest convenience. You'll be glad that you did.
